50X1-HUM

1. Georgi Traikov, deputy premier and head of the Agrarian Party, visited the widow of Raiko Daskalov, the Agrarian Party leader who was murdered in 1923, and spent about three hours trying to persuade her to influence her son and daughter to support the regime. Meanwhile, Mrs. Daskalova's pension has been raised from 200 to 900 leva per month. The family is believed to resent this pressure, to which they do not intend to yield.

2. [redacted] the Bulgarian Foreign Minister 50X1-HUM revealed that his salary is 3,200 leva per month, with his rent and servants being paid by the government, and said that despite certain reductions on foodstuffs and clothing, his salary was insufficient. The Prime Minister receives 8,000 leva per month.
